Shadows of the Mind Film Festival Announces “Filmed in the Sault/Screened in the Sault” Movie Titles

(Sault Ste. Marie) - The 19th Annual Shadows of the Mind Film Festival is set to run February 26 to March 4, 2018 in Sault Ste. Marie and while the full schedule will not be released until the new year, two movies filmed in the Sault, Pyewacket and Prodigals, are confirmed for the lineup. Pyewacket, a psychological horror, premiered at the Toronto International Film Festival to great reviews. The drama, Prodigals, is based on a stage play set in the Sault and written by former Saultite, Sean Minogue.

Shadows Film Festival traditionally offers 20 to 23 screenings over 6 days featuring Oscar buzz and critically acclaimed films and documentaries from around the world.

This is the first year the volunteer committee has taken the plunge into online ticket sales. Right now the long standing “5 Movie Pack Voucher” is being offered through Eventbrite at a special discounted price. Movie tickets will become available online when the box office opens in the Station Mall February 13. Gold passes will not be available online.

The committee is also pleased to announce the Shadows Gala will be held at The Tech on Tuesday February 27. Movie buffs are encouraged to keep checking the Shadows website www.shadowsfilmfest.com for updates.
